

Notes

- Limit switches detect object when grabbered
- Ultrasonic sensor will detect boundary condition
- Photo resistor sensor will sense where the object is located
- Steering is performed by changing the speed of one of the front wheels relative to the other